

South Carolina Safety Summit

March 14 – 16, 2017

The Marriott, Spartanburg, South Carolina

Agenda

Tuesday, March 14

9 a.m. Registration and Exhibit Showcase (Ballroom)

10 a.m. General Session (Ballroom)

Welcoming Remarks, Chairman Scott Coleman, Sage Automotive Interiors

**Safety Leadership...Making Safety a True Priority*, HT Goldman, SC National Safety Council

10:45 a.m. Break

11 a.m. Breakout Sessions

OSHA Training – General Industry-Introduction to OSHA Part 1, SC OSHA Rep.(Azalea A)

How to Investigate Safety Incidents, Steve Stanley and Kenny Silvers, Sage Automotive Interiors(Azalea B)

What's the ultimate purpose of a safety incident investigation? To prevent future incidents. How to Investigate Safety Incidents is an in-depth look at a proven process to identify hazards and exposures associated with on the job injuries and how to develop counter measures to prevent future incidents.

The 3D Focus of Safety - The People Component, Ty Washington, Boeing (Wadsworth)

This session will explore and expand upon the idea of Safety as not only an organization, but more specifically how it should be seen and embraced as an organism... living, moving, and protecting the Culture in which it is created. The People component describes how people (employees give birth to it, raise it, and continuously improve it).

Please note: OSHA Training Courses are open for anyone to attend, however, only those that pre-registered are eligible for certification.

*SHARPS Training, Charles Dixon, Nucor (Daniel Morgan)

12 p.m. Lunch and Exhibit Showcase (Ballroom)

1 p.m. Breakout Sessions

OSHA Training-General Industry-Introduction to OSHA Part 2, SC OSHA Rep. (Azalea A)

*Workplace Violence Plan, Jim McGinty, Covenant Security Services, Ltd. (Azalea B)

Global Harmonization Standards, Kenny Fernandez, SC OSHA (Wadsworth)

2 p.m. Break

2:10 p.m. Breakout Sessions

OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Hazard Communications, Kenny Fernandez, SC OSHA (Azalea A)

Confined Spaces- Julian Smalls, SI Group (Azalea B)

P3 Behavior Based Safety Structure- Connie Rice, Glen Raven (Wadsworth)

This presentation will discuss the power of 3 –recognizing at-risk behaviors and the journey to an employee owned safety process

*Know Your Heart, Cardiology Update, Part 1, Nicole Snow, MSN, ANP-BC (Daniel Morgan)

3:10 p.m. Break

3:20 p.m. Breakout Sessions

OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Exit Routes, Fire Protection, Fire Prevention, Scott Deering, Nucor Steel (Azalea A)

Implementing a Zero Accident Safety Culture, Steve Eberhardt, AstenJohnson(Azalea B)

70E Training, Randy Fabry, SCANA(Wadsworth)

*Know Your Heart, Control of Hypertension in the Workplace, Part 2, Nicole Snow, MSN, APN-BC(Daniel Morgan)

4:20 p.m. Meet and Greet Happy Hour with Exhibitors

5:30 p.m. Adjourn

Wednesday, March 15

8 a.m. Continental Breakfast and Exhibit Showcase (Ballroom)

8:45 a.m. Welcoming Remarks, Chairman Scott Coleman, Sage Automotive Interiors (Ballroom)

Please note: OSHA Training Courses are open for anyone to attend, however, only those that pre-registered are eligible for certification.

- 8:50 a.m. *OSHA Top 10 and Little Known Violations-OSHA VPP, Sharon Dumit, Kenny Fernandez, Matt Drawdy, Chandler Davis, SC OSHA
- 9:50 a.m. Break
- 10 a.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Electrical Safety, Steve Eberhardt, AstenJohnson (Azalea A)
*Management of an Occupational Health Program- COHN Impact on ROI- Panel Presentation, Angela Day, Phyllis Hames, George Wright (Azalea B)
Risk Assessment: Who, What, When, Why, and How?, Rob Connery, Aon Risk Solutions(Wadsworth)
 From comprehensive assessments of an entire organization to assessing the simple risk associated with changing a ladder on a piece of equipment in a manufacturing plant, there are many views of what risk assessment actually is. We all also know some risk assessments are more effective than others. Attendees will learn about: Who is and who should be involved in the process, Diverse approaches to these different scenarios and what a successful risk assessment looks like
- 11 a.m. Break
- 11:10 a.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Personal Protective Equipment, Kenny Perez, Nucor Building Systems (Azalea A)
New Hire Safety Training, Susan Embrose, Milliken and Company (Azalea B)
What to Expect During a VPP Audit, Sharon Dumit, SC OSHA(Wadsworth)
*Telehealth in the Workplace-Incorporating Advances in Technology in your Practice, Kathy Schwarting, MHA (Daniel Morgan)
- 12 p.m. Lunch with Exhibitors and Exhibitor Door Prize Drawings (Ballroom)
- 12:50 p.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Material Handling, Luke Scott, Nucor Steel (Azalea A)
Industrial Hygiene Standards-Minimizing Your Risk, Julie Moniot, Palmetto EHS (Azalea B)
This presentation will examine six common problems in industrial hygiene programs which, if not corrected, can lead to incorrect data collection, misinterpretation of data, employee exposure, and OSHA liability.
*Ergonomics: How can I do an Ergonomics Evaluation, I just work here?, Rob Connery, Aon Risk Solutions (Daniel Morgan)
When asked to be a part of an Ergonomics team, associates often are initially intimidated due to the perceived complexity and background of the process. This session serves as an Ergo 101 class to help “normal” associates be comfortable with their role in their organization’s ergonomics process.
- 1:50 p.m. Break

Please note: OSHA Training Courses are open for anyone to attend, however, only those that pre-registered are eligible for certification.

- 2:00 p.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Safety and Health Programs, Steve Eberhardt, AstenJohnson (Azalea A)
Implementing an Associate Driven Program to Identify Hazards, Melissa Molony, Sage Automotive Interiors(Azalea B)
How to Implement a Kamishiabai Audit System. A Kamishiabai audit system at Sage acts as a visual control for important safety and quality audit items. It ensures critical safety items are being monitored and also encourages associates to identify and implement additional safety checks. This system allows Sage to sustain safety improvements through associate driven audits.
Behavior Based Safety Structure, John Greely and Ashley Newman, Bridgestone (Wadsworth)
* Management of Diabetes Best Practices for an Occupational Health Setting; Treatment Guidelines and Current Medication, Nancy Durham (Daniel Morgan)
- 3:00 p.m. Break
- 3:10 p.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Hazardous Material, Scott Deering, Nucor Steel (Azalea A)
*Successful Management of Diabetes for the Shift Worker – Glucose Control is Possible, Nancy Durham (Daniel Morgan)
- 4:10 p.m. Breakout Sessions
OSHA Training – General Industry Track – Walking and Working Surfaces, Nick Jacobs, Nucor Vulcraft (Azalea A)
- 5:10 p.m. Adjourn

**Note: Sessions in blue receive continuing education credits from Mid Carolina AHEC ****

Please note: OSHA Training Courses are open for anyone to attend, however, only those that pre-registered are eligible for certification.

Thursday, March 16

8:30 a.m.      Continental Breakfast and Exhibit Showcase (Ballroom)

9 a.m.          Welcoming Remarks, Scott Coleman, Sage Automotive Interiors (Ballroom)

9:10 a.m.      OSHA Panel, Kenny Fernandez, Matthew Drawdy, Gwen Thomas, SC OSHA

9:55 a.m.      Gnats and Elephants, Roddy Gray

Most of our working hours are spent toiling and worrying over major deadlines, audits, and evaluations, and we tend to overlook the “minor” details. However, as history reminds us, it’s the small problems that eventually kill us, since they have a habit of multiplying. A humorous, but thought provoking look at ways of dealing with “gnats” before they turn into “elephants.” When was the last time you had an encounter with an elephant? But those pesky little gnats....!!!

10:40 a.m.     Break

10:50 a.m.     SC LLR Update, Emily Farr, Director, SC Labor Licensing and Regulations

11:15 a.m.     Presentation of Safety Awards

11:30 a.m.     Lunch

Company Photographs

Please note: OSHA Training Courses are open for anyone to attend, however, only those that pre-registered are eligible for certification.